Performance Disclosure: Past performance does not guarantee future results. The performance data quoted represents past performance and current returns may be lower or higher. The investment return and principal value of an investment will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than the original cost. Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing.

As stated in the Prospectus, the total annual operating expenses for the Fund was 3.86%. The Adviser has contractually agreed to keep net expenses from exceeding 2.50% of the Fund's average daily net assets for at least a year from the date of the Prospectus and for an indefinite period thereafter subject to annual re-approval of the agreement by the Board of Trustees. An investor cannot invest directly in an index. Index returns do not represent Fund returns.

Definitions: Net Asset Value (NAV) of the fund is calculated by dividing the total value of all the securities in its portfolio, less any liabilities, by the number of fund shares outstanding. The S&P 500® Index (SPX) is a stock market index based on the market capitalizations of 500 large companies whose common stock is publicly traded on the NYSE or NASDAQ. The Index does not charge management fees or brokerage expenses, nor does the Index lend securities, and no revenues from securities lending were added to the performance shown.

Risk Disclosure: Investments in the Global IPO Fund, symbol "IPOSX" are subject to investment risk, including possible loss of the principal amounts invested. The Fund invests in companies that have recently completed their initial public offerings. These stocks are unseasoned equities lacking trading history, a track record of reporting to investors and widely available research coverage which may result in extreme price volatility. The Fund may also be subject to information technology risk and small and mid-capitalization company risk due to a greater number of IPOs in these sectors. The Fund may hold securities in the form of Depository Receipts, REITs, and Partnership Units which have greater risks than common shares. The strategy has high portfolio turnover and securities lending risks.

Investors should consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses carefully before investing.
